Do You Struggle Managing Data From Multiple Brands of Hotels?

What if you could eliminate the struggle while reducing cost?
NOW YOU CAN!

New Technology...
Superior Results!

Finally multi-brand management done right, delivering the most actionable information to the appropriate individual at the right time. Our platform and applications are designed specifically to collect, filter, and analyze more information with less effort by:

- Reducing the cost of collection
Eliminate unnecessary data entry by automatically linking to revenue, operating expenses, labor, market research, and more
- Improving usability and flexibility
Bring together existing silos of data within one, easy-to-use, web-based platform for access to all your necessary software, tools, and information
- Bringing enterprise-class solutions to the small and mid market
Combining the latest technologies with standard tools allows us to keep our solution affordable for portfolios of all sizes
- A proactive approach to management
Standard features include robust web-reporting with scheduled delivery, user-driven alerts, customizable thresholds, event management, and projections
- And much more!

The Bottom Line
The freedom and flexibility provided by Allosso Technologies alone can easily justify the investment, but the decision is made easy when you consider the significant, long-term savings:

- Labor
Automated integration of systems allows you to re-focus employees on value-add work
- IT infrastructure & help desk
Simplified infrastructure reduces the dependency on costly IT resources and systems
- Paper handling and storage
Automating business processes reduce the amount of paper generated and the associated storage and retrieval costs
